married when she was 16.
Ages here unknown.

The marriage of Cecilia & Jacob

Jacob Hamilton Bush, son of a local landowner, was smitten by young Cecilia and would follow her home from church. She was punished for this after his visits. So, escorted by relatives, they went by horseback to Clarksburg, took the train to Parkersburg, crossed into Ohio, and were married in Marietta, where parental permission was not required.

Death of Cecilia's husband, Jacob Hamilton Bush

Jacob H Bush died Dec 17, 1865, 12 days before his 45th birthday. His death record shows “accident” as cause of death.

Family tradition per the late Shirley Bush Fulks is that he died of “blood poisoning” (septicemia) from an axe wound, which likely was “the accident.”

Widow Cecilia was left to raise their eleven children. She would not re-marry for nine years.

What Cecilia did

“Not content” as just a widow with 11 children to raise...

she was a very active member of her community...

MOTHERS COMMUNITY

In addition to this huge family, Aunt Celia mothered the entire community. When sickness came to a home in that neighborhood, she was among the first to bring help.

This and following two quotes are from a story by Gilbert J. Hersman on the occasion of Cecilia's 85th birthday. It was published in The Clarksburg Exponent, December 11, 1939.

MOTHERS COMMUNITY

When a child was born, she was generally present to aid the family. When death came, her vast store of sympathy and kindness was most apparent.

MOTHERS COMMUNITY

Distance meant nothing to her. She would ride miles through the mud on horseback* and cross swollen streams in summer or in dead of winter, day or night, to help some one in need. *or in her buggy

Cecilia was active in the community- 1897 newspaper:

THE social given by Mrs. Cecelia Bush, of Gaston, last night, was an enjoyable affair, there being about sixty young people present. After various games the party retired to the dining room where refreshments were served. It was late in the night when the crowd dispersed.

Cecilia's second family

As previously shown, a great-granddaughter wrote, concerning Cecilia and her husbands:

Jacob died after 23 years of marriage and 11 children but Aunt Celia, as she was fondly known, was to marry again. Her second marriage, ten years after the death of Jacob, was to HENRY BONNETT whose wife had died leaving him with nine children. Five of the Bonnett children came to live at the Bush homestead in which Cecelia still had six or seven of her own children living at home.

Cecilia married again after nine years.

Henry Bonnett had 11 children, but two, Waldo and George Henry, Jr, died in childhood. The other nine are shown in the next slide.

Head of Five Living Generations Marks Her Eighty-Fifth Birthday

Mrs. Cecelia Bonnett
Mothers' Stone Coal
Community for 50 Years

By GILBERT J. HERSMAN

Weston, Dec. 11.—One of the Stone Coal community's best known residents, a woman who in addition to rearing a family of sixteen children, mothered the entire community for a half century is observing her eighty-fifth birthday today. She is Mrs. Cecelia B. Bonnett, familiarly known to hundreds as "Aunt Celia," who for nearly sixty years has resided at what is known as the Bush home on Stone Coal, near Gaston on the Buckhannon road.

Her youngest daughter, Mrs. Lane Lewis, who resides at the old home with her, held open house yesterday with a birthday celebration for her mother. Relatives, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, along with many friends and neighbors, called to wish her well and many more birthdays. There is every indication that she will enjoy many more anniversaries for she is in excellent health. She sleeps well and eats well, says she has none of the aches and pains which afflict most older persons.

She reared eleven of her own children. Ten years after the death of her first husband, she married again. Her second husband had nine children and five of them came to live at the home on Stone Coal. She brought them up along with her own children until they married and went out into the world.

MOTHERS' COMMUNITY

In addition to this huge family, Aunt Celia mothered the entire community. When sickness came to a home in that neighborhood, she was among the first to bring help. When a child was born, she was generally present to aid the family. When death came of her vast store of sympathy and kindness was most apparent.

Distance meant nothing to her. She would ride miles through the mud on horseback and across swollen streams in summer or in dead of winter, day or night, to help some one in need.

Authors of romantic novels have missed a great plot in Aunt Celia's busy life.

She was born December 11, 1854, on Stone Coal, a daughter of Jacob J. and Parmelia Watson Jackson. Her father was a member of the pioneer Jackson family which included early community settlers and the celebrated "Stonewall" Jackson.

There are five generations in this picture of folk at Stone Coal, Lewis county. Holding the baby, Patricia Mace, is the child's great-great-grandmother, Mrs. Cecelia Bush Bonnett, with the great-grandmother, Mrs. Charles Clark, at her side; in the back row are the baby's mother, Mrs. Goldie Mace, and the grandmother, Mrs. John R. Corathers.

She was married when only 16. Jacob H. Bush accompanied her home from church and her mother punished her for it. This was too much and the young people promptly eloped. With R. E. Bush and Clark Jackson, she and J. H. Bush rode horseback to Clarksburg where they took a train for Marietta, O. This was her first train-ride and ended in her marriage.

They went to live with his parents at the Bush home where she now resides. They spent twenty-three happy years together. Mr. Bush dying rather suddenly December 17, 1893. Eleven children were born to them. She was left with ten at home, the eldest daughter having married. The youngest, now Mrs. Lane Lewis, was but eighteen months old when her father died. Aunt Celia kept all her children with her until they married. One of her daughters, Mrs. Ellis L. Smith, now resides on the site here she was born, at McGuire Park on Route 33.

Ten years after her first husband's death, "Aunt Celia" married Henry Bonnett, of Berlin.

WHAT A REUNION!

What a family reunion she could have, with the many living children. Only one of her ten is dead, Roal P. Bush, killed in a road accident a few years ago in Ohio. And there are thirty-three grandchildren, twenty-seven great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Most of her own children reside in Lewis county: Gay Bush, who married C. A. Clark, of Skin creek, has seven children; Iza, wife of John A. Swisher, of Berlin, two children; Vinnie, wife of Charles Swisher, of route 3, two children; Maude, wife of Ellis L. Smith, one daughter; Addie Bush, who married O. T. Smith, of Ben's Run, five children; W. Scott Bush, of Tulsa, Okla.; Roal P. Bush, deceased, one child; Ward Bush, route 3, one daughter; Kate, wife of Arthur Huff, Lane, wife of Urban Lewis, of route 3, two children.

Back row L-R: My mother (Goldie Elizabeth Corathers-Mace) and her mother, my Grandmother, Minnie Clark-Corathers. Front row: Gay Bush-Clark (my g-grandmother) and Cecelia Jackson-Bush-Bonnett holding baby "me", Patricia Mace.

The Bonnett children included Clyde, of Akron, O.; Earl, deceased; Carl, Vasco and Swisher L. Bonnett, all of Baltimore, Md.; Claude, of New York city; Roy, of Moundsville, and Aura and Glenn, both deceased. Glenn died in Texas when Mrs. Bonnett and her husband were visiting there. The body was brought back to Berlin for burial.

She has one brother living, George W. Jackson, 89, of Ripley, and one half-sister, Mrs. R. V. (Victoria) Rolnbough, of Magnolia avenue, Clarksburg. Her father, Jacob J. Jackson, was twice married. She was a daughter of the second union which produced four children. After her father's death, her mother later married Jacob J. Hudson. To this union were born three children, one of whom is living.

"Aunt Cecelia" as she was familiarly known to her entire com-

... one of the Creator's grandest creations

... grandest creations. In addition to mothering a large family—not only her own children, and several step children, she mothered the entire community. There was never a death, a birth, a wedding, sickness or tragedy anywhere in the community, that Aunt Celia did not arrive early and assist in every way possible. She started this early in life—long before permanent roads, riding horseback or in her buggy for miles late at night over almost impassable roads, in a pouring rain. It was all the same to this splendid woman. There was something she could do—and she hastened to do it. She was a superlative example of the ideal community helpfulness that existed years ago in this land. Her home was also the gathering place for the whole community and Sunday dinner at her home brought in neighbors, friends and visitors in great numbers, not occasionally, but every Sunday.

“The End”

May this presentation inspire you to honor our ancestors, those tough and resolute pioneers, who put God, family, and country above all else.

Without them, we would not be here or would be different people with different lives.

Our thanks to all whose material was used in this presentation.

Our best wishes to all who see this file, and “may the circle be unbroken.”
