Do Not Stand at My Grave and Weep

By Mary Elizabeth Frye, 1932

Do not stand at my grave & weep
I am not there; I do not sleep
I am a thousand winds that blow
I am the diamond glints on snow
I am the sunlight on ripened grain
I am the gentle autumn rain

When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight
I am the star that shines at night
Do not stand at my grave and cry
I am not there, I did not die.

Prayer of Thanksgiving and Comfort

Nancy Jackson

Trumpet Solo, Taps (please stand)

Scott Hyde

Prayer

Nancy A. Jackson

Lord, as we pause in memory today for those Jackson family members who have passed since our last gathering, we pray in Thanksgiving for their lives.

We pray for their families and loved ones who have felt and will feel their loss more deeply.

We pray that they will be comforted and that their grieving will be healing for them.

We pray for friends who will miss them in familiar places, that the emptiness of the void will not diminish fond recollections.

And lastly we pray for ourselves that in this time of reflection we may be bound together as a healing community, aware of your living spirit in our midst.

In His name, Amen
